The case made of genuine wood contains 30 high-quality coloured pencils. The wide range of colours and their excellent brilliance are appreciated not only by school children and hobby artists, but also by professional artists. Durability: the unbreakable pencils are protected by the box that also keeps them neatly in order. Precise and water-soluble, they are suited for drawings and aquarelles: the ideal present for anyone creative.

Writing and drawing at the highest level

Daily devotion to the art of drawing and writing; crafting the finest writing instruments; and creating the most luminous colours: this has been the focus of the Maison Caran d'Ache in Geneva for a century. Keenly aware of the need for artistic expression, from childhood to adulthood, as well as the more demanding needs of creative professionals, the manufacturer perpetuates its unique know-how and commitment to Swiss quality and sustainability with care and expertise.
