Victorinox SwissTool Spirit XC, Silver

Always have the right tool with you: the multi-tool manufactured in Switzerland is a small marvel and impresses with 26 adjustable functions. Its durability makes it a valuable basic for people for whom genuine quality is important. The timeless design will never go out of fashion. The functional tool with its handy format can fit into any bag. With different screwdrivers, pliers and saws, as well as a wire cutter and can opener, almost all possible areas for use have been considered. You can use the nylon bag to carry the tool on your belt at all times.

All in one, always close at hand

Victorinox develops and sells unique products around the world, which can be used in many life and everyday situations: Swiss pocket knives, household and professional knives, watches, luggage and fragrances. They make no compromises when it comes to quality. This not only means that the products last a very long time. They also have an aesthetic force. Victorinox originated in a cutler's workshop in 1884 and has stood for innovation and design for more than 130 years.
